SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a 3 years as follows: 3 years on Count 1 and 1 year on Count 2, to run concurrently.

The defendant must report to the probation office in the district to which the defendant is released within 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.

The defendant shall not commit another federal, state or local crime.

The defendant shall not unlawfully possess a controlled substance. The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.

- ☐ The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse. (Check, if applicable.)
- ☒ The defendant shall not possess a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or any other dangerous weapon. (Check, if
- ☒ The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (Check, if applicable.)
- ☐ The defendant shall register with the state sex offender registration agency in the state where the defendant resides, works, or student, as directed by the probation officer. (Check, if applicable.)
- ☐ The defendant shall participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (Check, if applicable.)

If this judgment imposes a fine or restitution, it is a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay in accordance with the Schedule of Payments sheet of this judgment.

The defendant must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any additional conditions on the attached page.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

- 1) the defendant shall not leave the judicial district without the permission of the court or probation officer;
- 2) the defendant shall report to the probation officer and shall submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month;
- 3) the defendant shall answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer and follow the instructions of the probation officer;
- 4) the defendant shall support his or her dependents and meet other family responsibilities;
- 5) the defendant shall work regularly at a lawful occupation, unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons;
- 6) the defendant shall notify the probation officer at least ten days prior to any change in residence or employment;
- 7) the defendant shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and shall not purchase, possess, use, distribute, or administer any controlled substance or any paraphernalia related to any controlled substances, except as prescribed by a physician;
- 8) the defendant shall not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, used, distributed, or administered;
- 9) the defendant shall not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity and shall not associate with any person convicted of a felony, unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer;
- 10) the defendant shall permit a probation officer to visit him or her at any time at home or elsewhere and shall permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view of the probation officer;
- 11) the defendant shall notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested by a law enforcement officer;
- 12) the defendant shall not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or a special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the court; and
- 13) as directed by the probation officer, the defendant shall notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by the defendant's criminal record or personal history or characteristics and shall permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm the defendant's compliance with such notification requirement.

DEFENDANT: SHANTASHI COOPER
CASE NUMBER: DP AE2:12CR00070-001

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

In addition to the standard terms and conditions of supervision, defendant shall:

1. maintain gainful employment;
2. if unable to maintain gainful employment, attend whatever educational and/or vocational training program her probation officer directs;
3. if neither working nor in school, perform community service at an activity approved by the court, on recommendation of her probation officer, for no less than 20 hours per week;
4. refrain from the illegal possession and/or use of drugs and submit to substance abuse screening to ensure compliance;
5. participate in a substance abuse treatment program, as directed by her probation officer, and abide by the rules of any such program until discharged from this obligation by the court on recommendation of her probation officer;
6. participate in a mental health program for evaluation and/or treatment and comply with the rules of any such program until discharged with the approval of the court on recommendation of her probation officer;
7. provide her probation officer with full disclosure of her financial records including yearly income tax returns upon request, cooperate with her probation officer in the investigation of her financial dealings, and provide truthful monthly statements of her income;
8. make regular monthly payments toward the remaining balance due on her court-imposed financial obligations in an amount to be determined upon defendant's release from custody, when she begins working;
9. refrain from incurring any new debt or opening additional lines of credit without the approval of the court, on recommendation of her probation officer, unless she is in compliance with a payment schedule for her court-imposed financial obligations;
10. refrain from encumbering or liquidating interest in any assets unless it is in the direct service of her court-imposed financial obligations or otherwise has the express approval of the court;
11. notify the United States Attorney for this district within 30 days of any change of mailing address or residence that occurs while any portion of her financial obligation to the court remains unpaid; and
12. refrain from holding any position that allows her to handle personal credit card account and identification information, while on supervised release. This condition is imposed because a reasonably direct relationship existed between defendant's occupation and the conduct relevant to the offense of conviction. This restriction is reasonably necessary to protect the public because there is reason to believe that absent such restriction, defendant will continue to engage in unlawful conduct similar to that for which she was convicted. The time frame and structure of this condition is for the minimum time and extent necessary to protect the public.

The probation office shall provide written reports to the court on the status of defendant's supervision every 90 days.
